

References cited (Referenced by)

U.S. Patent Documents

2021096 Nov., 1935 Mallgraf.

323194 Feb., 1966 O'Brien

4112635 Sept., 1978 Rylander

Playhouse where contours of the assembled structure may be selected to resemble a castle, fort, etc.

4467572 Aug., 1984 Somers, et al

Collapsible dwelling with folding wall units

4569664 Feb., 1986 Giampetrozzi, et al

Playhouse held together by interlocking panels. Additional panels may be added.

4603685 Aug., 1986 Gainsey

Collapsible unit with side walls, roof, and floor

5352149 Oct., 1994 Malashenko, et al

Free standing play structure with inter-changeable scenes and panels.

58817989 Mar., 1999 Maleshenko, et al

Playhouse with interchangeable panels with various scenes and murals.

References cited (referenced by)

U.S. Documents...continued

5993287 Nov., 1999 Malashenko, et al

Playhouse kit being free standing with at least one interchangeable panel being a scene or mural.

5890338 April, 1999 Rodriquez-Ferr

A structure for constructing house designs for children. Modular structure includes molded panels, which are connected with assistance of corner pieces. Panels have embossed surfaces resembling stonework, windows, door openings in which relevant leaves and panels and panes are articulated.

6065253 May, 2000 Ojeda

Playhouse being made of magnetic eraser board with magnetic panels which may be attached to the playhouse to change its appearance. Pre-designed wallpaper may be added to wall units.

6108982 Aug., 2000 Davison

A folding play structure with a four piece roof unit interlocked with tabs.

6325089 Dec., 2001 Skinner, et al

A collapsible fabric structure that may be in the form of a playhouse

References cited (Referenced by)

U.S. Patent Documents (continued)

6500007

Dec., 2002

Pupulin

A game-apparatus having slots. Creates a number of three-dimensional configurations.

building pieces can create images.